

Amber Hudler hails from Titusville, Florida, where she was raised through the discipleship of her parents and Park Avenue Baptist Church. She felt the Lord begin wooing her heart toward ministry at the end of her time at Gardner-Webb University, where she earned a Bachelor's degree in Education. She speaks passionately, with an intense desire to inspire people to love Jesus wholly and to stand on His Word unapologetically. She is genuine, transparent, and relatable as she challenges others to endeavor into the next phase of maturity with Christ.

Amber lives with her husband and three children in Richmond, Virginia. She has been a stay-at-home mother since 2004. During this time, Amber has been blessed with opportunities to speak at church and community events, lead Bible studies for teenage girls and women, co-lead an Upward sports ministry and implement a community Bible study for women and children.

Amber's messages concentrate on bringing Biblical passages to life through a practical approach with an emphasis on:

- Living out Biblical truth through the empowerment of the Holy Spirit
- Embracing an intimate walk with Christ
- Exemplifying our faith in word and deed
- Maturing in our understanding of the Bible and its place in our lives

“Therefore be imitators of God, as beloved children. And walk in love, as Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, a fragrant offering and sacrifice to God.”
Ephesians 5:1-2
